In order to improve the efficiency of the use of the margin capital by market participants and as an initial step towards cross margining across cash and derivatives markets, margins shall be levied on cash market positions which have off-setting stock futures positions in the derivatives market as given below:

- a. Cross margin facility will be available initially for institutional trades.
- b. Cross margin facility will be available to positions in cash market having corresponding off-setting positions in the stock futures market.
- c. For positions in the cash market which have corresponding off-setting positions in the stock futures, VaR margin shall not be levied on the cash market position to the extent of the off-setting stock futures market position.
- d. Extreme Loss Margin and Market to Market Margin shall continue to be levied on the entire cash market position.
- e. Near month stock futures positions shall not be considered for cross margin benefit three days prior to expiry (as currently being cross in the case of calendar spread.)
- f. There will be no change in the margins of the F&O positions.

Proposed Insertion of Bye-laws No. 246B:

Regulatory Framework of Internal Audit for stock brokers/clearing members as specified in Bye-Law no. 246B below:

246B- Internal Audit for stock brokers/clearing members

It shall be compulsory for all member stock brokers/clearing members to carry out complete internal audit on a half yearly basis by chartered accountants, company secretaries or cost and management accountants who are in practice and who do not have any conflict of interest.

Scope of the Internal Audit shall cover, inter alia, the existence, scope and efficiency of the Internal Control System, compliance with the provisions of the SEBI Act, 1992, Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act 1956, SEBI (Stock Brokers and Sub-Brokers) Regulations, 1992, circulars issued by SEBI, agreements, KYC requirements, Bye-Laws of the Exchanges, data security and insurance in respect of the operations of stock brokers/clearing members. The first such audit period should start from October 1, 2008 to March 31, 2009.

Proposed deletion of Bye-laws No. 69A (g) (d):

69A (g) (d) - Margining of Institutional Trades in Cash Market:

The collection of margins would move to an upfront basis with effect from June 16, 2008.
